

an annual exploration
of the histories of the Patapsco Valley

Creating Change in the 20th Century

Redlining: A Patapsco Perspective

Join a panel conversation exploring the history of structural racism and classism, how these designs compounded each other from redlining maps until today, and how we can come together to undesign these systems with intentionality. Specific insight will be given for examples in Howard County including the Rouse Company, Fels Lane, and more.

Registration Requested

March 2 | 2 pm

Elkridge Branch Library
6540 Washington Blvd
Elkridge, MD 21075

presented by

